

REQUIRED AND SUPPLEMENTAL READING LIST FOR LANGUAGE ARTS – COLLEGE BOUND GRADE 10

Required Reading denotes selections that must be studied. After incorporating those novels into the curriculum, students will study at least two more novels and/or plays from the supplemental reading list.

Teachers do not have to utilize the required selections in any particular order; they simply must ensure that they are studied by students before the end of the school year.

Teachers may use any material in their primary textbook, any book or selection listed below that is designated for their grade level, and any material that is not used at other levels.
