Hello, my name is Alexis DiDomenico, your kiddos new School Counselor at East Derry & Strodes Mills Elementary schools! Since I began my professional journey I've been lucky to have had the opportunity to collaborate on some exciting proactive and collaborative projects. I take pride in all that I do and in the long-term relationships I've fostered in the process with my students and families. I firmly believe that every child can succeed with the support and care they need from a great school & home relationship. Please feel free to reach out and keep updated with the counseling services that can benefit your child in the future counseling corner newsletters coming this year!

ABOUT ME

I grew up on the East side of the Pittsburgh area, coming from a family of four. I currently live in State College with my French Bulldog named Louie. I earned my Bachelor's Degree in Rehabilitation and Human Services, with a background in Special Education and Human Development and Family Studies from Penn State. From my undergrad career, I continued my education at Penn state, receiving my M.Ed. in Counselor Education. In addition to my master's degree, I earned my National Certified Counselor (NCC) certificate. Previously, I worked in Keystone Central School District as an elementary counselor intern for a year and a half. I also worked as a clinician at Penn State's Cedar clinic counseling college students. I love my profession and all the work that will take place this school year. I am very excited to start my first year with Mifflin County School District and I look forward to engaging with all my students and their families at East Derry and Strodes Mills Elementary Schools.
