- Treasurer's Report
 - Balance: $27,421.83
 - Budgeted $3,500 per grade level for field trips
 - Budgeted $1,800 for Christmas crafts but spent $300 after items were purchased through the Amazon Wish List.
 - We had to pay for half of the prizes for the fundraiser. Pizza and limo
- Christmas Craft Follow-up
 - New craft with second grade went well.
- Santa Visit Follow-up
 - Costs $150
 - Will decide if we want to continue with Santa visit next year
- Ag Lab Follow-up
 - We had more help than needed but it went well.
- Spring Fundraisers

- Calendar Raffle
 - Will be held during February. Local businesses donated all of the prizes and Mifflin County Wireless/One Stop Communications printed the calendars so there was no expense for Home & School.
 - $8,200
 - Winners will be posted on the Home & School Facebook page. Winners will also be called. The school will post about the raffle and share the Home & School page so parents can follow the raffle.
 - Thank you cards will be sent and a post will be made on Facebook thanking the sponsors at the end of the month.
- Color Run or Fun Run
 - Color Run may take too much money to organize so we will not pursue for this year.
- Meat Raffle
 - Cost about $600 for last year and we made about $9,000.
 - We will organize this for spring.
 - Keyona Narehood volunteered to organize the raffle. Lisa Rheam to provide her with information on -Peachey's Foods.
- Ram Rally
 - Will not pursue for this year.
- Bake Sale during the Family Outdoor Movie Night
- Will consider a jump rope fundraiser for next year.
- Committees/Event Updates
 - Yearbook
 - Sponsorships
 - Jostens prints the yearbook. They offer a service to set up ads but the timeline has already passed. We can do ads independently but will need to be completed by mid-March. Three pages are available for ads.
 - Letter to potential sponsors include that Home & School helps cover the cost of yearbooks so that students do not have to pay for it.
 - Prices for ads: $250 per quarter of a page
 - Book Fair
 - March 18 – 22
 - Family Night on March 18th during STEAM Fair. STEAM Fair is 6-8 PM. Book Fair will be open an additional half hour after the fair so that kids participating in the fair can attend the Book Fair.

- Volunteer sign-up sheet for the Book Fair started. Please indicate if you can volunteer during the evening hours
 - Class schedules for the Book Fair have not been determined yet
- Field Day
 - Will discuss in March
- Spring Family Event/Outdoor Movie
