Dear Students, Parents, and Guardians,

At Mifflin County Middle School, we have an early morning study program called Early Bird, where students can receive help with their studies. Typically, students use this time to get help with homework, study for tests, and so forth.

The Early Bird program is offered in the library every morning from 7:30 to 8:00 a.m. beginning on Tuesday, September 8. Students should come directly to the library to sign the logbook after arriving at school. If a student needs to go to his or her locker to get needed materials, passes will be given.

Utilizing Early Bird is a good way for students to keep up on their studies!

Sincerely,

Gregory Hetrick and Maryann Haines,
Early Bird Facilitators
